Presenting problems: Child F does anything he can do to engage staff in his poor behaviour. When he is on task, he engages well and can succeed. But when he feels insecure or threatened, then he misbehaves in order to get the staff to react, this can be quite extreme at times.
Previous interventions/threshold (what have you tried, how did it go): We differentiate his work and when he focusses, he achieves it. The problem is when another child sets him off, then he wants to be the centre of attention.
Parents/carers view: Child F's parents have tried telling him off and telling him he cannot be naughty. In our meetings they agree to everything we try and want him to stop being bad.
Any other information: Child F is a child at risk and has a social worker.
