How do I earn money from this?

The way we work is simple to get you set up:

1. You pay one Registration and Training fee.
2. You charge your clients for places on the course.
3. You pay us a small resource and assessment fee per learner and keep the rest.

There are extra fees for things like re-assessing a candidate or appealing a result, these are listed in our Price List.

How does registration work?

Our registration involves a simple 6-step process:

1. You complete the registration and agreement form and pay the Registration fee
2. We undertake due diligence checks
3. We assess your registration
4. When approved we train you
5. You deliver your first course!

About The Mentoring School

The Mentoring School was established by international behaviour expert Richard Daniel Curtis in 2016. For several years his consultancy, The Root Of It, had been delivering training for mentors working in primary and secondary schools in the UK.

Since then, they have expanded their training to cover a variety of fields, including training for mentoring executives, business owners, employees, apprentices, youth, refugees, homeless and more.

They have worked with the UK Home Office, public sector bodies, charities, corporations and small and medium businesses.

HOW ARE COURSES DELIVERED?

There are normally three ways to deliver our courses:

- eLearning We provide you with access to our 10-15 minute long online modules, online resources and you provide Learner support.
- In-person We provide you with the resources to deliver our courses in your centre or on your client's premises. Your Learners have access to online resources from us.
- Fast-track Your Learners access some preLearning modules, online resources and we provide you with the resources to deliver a final group learning day.

Corporate Responsibility

For every person you train, we will provide training for a volunteer. We partner with charities to provide eLearning. We call this Train 1 Train 2.
