

Technical mentoring involves supporting someone to learn new skills.

Pastoral mentoring involves developing the whole person, which may include elements of technical mentoring.

Many younger people tell us they want to feel supported as a whole person to feel more engaged.

Certified Practitioner Mentor for Apprentices Programme

Mentoring and coaching training for those supporting apprentices

Transforming apprenticeships

Programme delivery

Available as:

- 3-day group learning
- 6 x 3-hour group learning sessions
- Fast Track blended learning (eLearning and 1-day group learning)
- eLearning

These are then followed by a three-month portfolio to gain the qualification.

The total time is approx. 125-150 hours.

Assessment

Learners complete a reflective assignment to gain a Level 3 Certificate in Mentoring Apprentices from Open Awards. This includes a reflection on mentoring an individual, a mentoring intervention and their own learning.

They also have the option to sign up to the official Register of Mentors as an accredited mentor.

Introducing the Practitioner Mentor for Apprentices, a certification designed for managers, supervisors,

Only 31% of team leaders and supervisors feel confident supporting apprentices according to our recent survey.

The expectations and attitudes of apprentices have changed enormously and the pastoral support they are offered is even more vital to the success of an apprenticeship programme.
